

Celebrating Chief Councillor Harold Leighton's Remarkable Achievement!

To read the full article,
scan this QR Code.

We are thrilled to extend our heartfelt congratulations to Chief Councillor Harold Leighton of Metlakatla First Nation for being recognized as one of the 14 distinguished British Columbians to receive the prestigious Order of British Columbia this year. This remarkable achievement is a testament to Chief Councillor Leighton's dedication, leadership, and outstanding contributions to his community and the province at large.

The Order of British Columbia is the province's highest honour, and being inducted into this esteemed group is a well-deserved recognition of Chief Councillor Leighton's exceptional service and positive impact on the people of British Columbia. This year, a total of 224 nominations were received for this honour, and Chief Councillor Leighton joins the ranks of the distinguished recipients who have received this honour since its inception in 1989. Chief Councillor Leighton's commitment to his community and his relentless efforts in driving positive change have truly made a difference. As we applaud him for his accomplishments, we also acknowledge the company of renowned individuals who share this year's honours. To read the full article about Chief Councillor Harold Leighton's induction into the Order of British Columbia, along with other notable recipients, please visit <https://news.gov.bc.ca/releases/2023IGRS0018-001270>

Once again, congratulations to Chief Councillor Harold Leighton on this remarkable achievement. Your dedication and contributions are an inspiration to us all.

